

Firefight 6 - Swamps of Bryansk (Page 1)

July, 1941 Personal Journal. ..Marsh everywhere and Bolsheviks seem to pop up from nowhere. The roads are muddy, the open fields are muddy, and water everywhere. What good roads there are, we must control, so that our Panzers can move forward quickly.
Corporal Hans Rastlingen

General Situation: Early in the campaign, the Germans relied on speed, surprise, and superior tactics to overwhelm or bypass Soviet defenders. Occasionally though, the Germans were forced to fight the Soviets at their own game: positional defense. In this case, the Germans must force a Soviet defense of a critical bridge.

Players: 2    CAP Allocation per Turn: German - 12 CAPs    Soviet - 7 CAPs

Action Cards: Shuffle all green cards and count out 12. 3 of these green cards form the bottom of the stack. Next mix 3 more green cards with a yellow firefight event card and place on top of the first 3 green cards. Then add the remaining 6 green cards to the top of the stack. Each player receives 2 cards on turn 1 and 1 each turn thereafter.

Special Rules: German mortars, infantry guns and tanks may all fire smoke. Soviet foot movement in marsh hexes is modified by only +1AP, not +2APs.

Map Setup: Maps 1 and 6. Place control counters, Soviet side up, on hexes 6-J09, 6-I10, and 6-I11. Place a bunker facing in any direction, on hex 6-J13.
